Health Economics

Freshness

We never stop improving our activities; the secret of our success is our open-minded, fresh and positive attitude.

Comprehensive Health Economic services

Medfiles offers to pharmaceutical and medical device companies wide experience in health economic services. Our Health Economics unit strives for as rapid access to the market as possible for your product. Our experts have many years' experience in market access related tasks.

Our services include

- health economics in clinical trials
- price and reimbursement applications, including health economic evaluations
- health economic analyses and tools
- consultation and training.

Please ask more information about e.g. the unique possibility to incorporate a health economic protocol into a clinical trial or medical device study: this enables accumulation of health economic data on the product right from the start of its lifecycle.

Price and reimbursement applications often consume companies' resources excessively – so leave them and the required health economic evaluations to us. Depending on your needs, we can prepare either the whole application or selected sections of it. You can also count on our support in negotiations with the authorities.

Utilize our health economic tools and let us create for your sales and marketing personnel health economic messages and arguments that will convince health care decision-makers about the necessity of your product in a completely new way. We also offer training on various health economic themes. We are ready to provide rapid and flexible service even in urgent cases.

Fairness

We keep our promises. You can trust us and rely on our commitment to co-operation.

Flexibility

We provide the highest quality of work; we are flexible, prompt, and accurate with a professional attitude.
